Miller & Rhoads.

years of New York, has been sent out by the Macmillan Company. The book has sixty illustrations, including a reproduc-tion of Mary Washington's home, in Fred-ericksburg, and is said to be full of curiof colonial dames and their accomplish-

One of these, "The Story of Adhelmar, was immediately accepted by Harper. The other has to do with modern life, and will appear in the "Smart Set."

Terrell-Ellett

Ins weading celebration of Miss Dalsy Moody Ellett, the daughter of Mrs. A. C. and the late Dr. Charles A. Luett, to Dr. Emmett Herman Terrell, took place Wednesday, October 21st, in the home of the bride's mother, "Oak Grove," Hanover county, Va.

The house was prettily decorated in palms and autumn flowers, Miss Grace

The wedding celebration of Miss

C. B. a La Spirite Corsets

The opportunity afforded for satisfying individual tastes is one of the chief contributors to the supremacy of C. B. Corsets-and that's

They are constructed in so many different models that any figure may be fitted.

No. 753 is a Silk brocade Corset in White, Blue and White, and Black and White-Princess hip, trimmed with double faced Satin Ribbon, fan shaped front which reduces the size of the abdomen. A splendid model for medium and stout figures $5.00.

No. 630 is made of the same material and in the same Colors as the first named Corset, but its intended for slender figures. Trimmed with Ribbon top and bottom, with short hip $5.00.

No. 472 is made on exactly the same lines, but in fine imported Coutil instead of Silk; trimmed with Lace and Ribbon $2.50.

A well made C. B. Corset of good Coutil with Princess, short and medium long hip is sold for $1.00 and like all C. B. models is an exceptionally good value.

Miller & Rhoads

Social and

Yohn's gorgeous collar illustration of Miss Mary Johnston's "Sir Mortimer" makes a lovely frontispiece for the pe greenery in an English park as a background for a knight and his lady, she n Elizabethan gown of peach blossom the neck ruff of the period.

Another drawing by the same artist English fleet; Captain Robert Baldry, Sir Mortimer Ferne. G!les Ar-den and Lieutenant Henry Sedley, in a den and Lieutenant Henry Sedicy, in a private parlor of a London inn, the "Triple Tun." Sir Mortimer has just challenged Captain Baldry to fight, and two men stand opposite each other with drawn swords. Sir John Neville has start-ed up to put an end to the quarral and prevent the fray. The others are on-lookers. The figures are instinct with prevent the fray. The others are on-lookers. The figures are instinct with life; the rich coloring and the skilfully managed lights and shadows tell their own story of the artistic and managed lights and shadows tell their own story of the artist's able interpretation of Miss Johnston's story.

Two chapters are given in this first magazine number. The period reverted to is the latter part of the sixteenth century, the "golden days of good Queen Bess." The opening scene is at the "Triple Tun Inn," where Sir Mortimer Ferne, has gathered around him in London at dinner the admiral of the English fleet and a number of capitalns and gentlemen adnumber of captains and gentlemen adforthcoming adventures in the nish Main. Sir Mortimer Ferne gives toast in teh following words:

drink to those who follow after. rink to those who fail—pebbles east o water whose ring still wideneth, cheth God knows what unguessable re, where loss may yet be counted 1! I drink to merry England and to day when every sea shall bring her bute-to England, like Aphrodite, new-sen from the main! Drink with me!"

During the dinner a quarrel is thrust Son Sir Mortimer by one of his guests n Sir Mortimer by one of his guests fellow captains, Robeit Baldry. At own board, the host of the occaparries Baldry's rudeness as best he. After it is over he sends a message him to return and challenge him, at the command of his admiral he at the forhears to fight and gives his length forbears to fight, and gives his promise not to take up his quarrel again his return from the expedition, he is about to fare forth on.

he is about to fare forth on, second chapter and the most rotells of how Sir Mortimer aftergoes in quest of his sweetheart, Danmaris Sedley to tell her of his jud 4.0-bit her farewell. He finds guins his suit and a lovely June hich ensues closes with the followsouliste word picture:

the flower and fruit, and meeting and parting it held for them. Hand in hand they sat upon the grassy bank, and eyes met eyes, but speech came not often to their lips. They looked and loved, against the winter storing each moment with sweet knowledge, honeyed assurance.

"Brave and fair were they both, gallant "Brave and fair were they both, gallant lovers in a gallant time, changing love looks in a queen's garden, above the sliver Thames. A tide of amethyst fell the sunset light; the swallows circled over head; a sound was heard of singing over head; a sound was heard of singing voices; violet knights and rese-colored maid of honor, the came at last to say farewell. That night in the lit palace, amid the garish crowd, they might see each other again; might touch hands; might even have slight speech together, but not as now could heart speak to heart. They rose from the green bank, and and the singing ceased, and the world grew ashen, they said what lovers and on the brink of absence, and at the last they kissed good-bye."

"The Mother of Washington and Her Times," from the pen of Mrs. Roger A. Pryor, formerly of Virginia, but for some

OUT AGAIN.

What Powerful Food Can Do.

It is evidently a scientific and powerful ood that can take confirmed invalids out of bed and make them well again.

"After doctoring two years for terrible stomach trouble, I concluded that it was incurable," says a young woman of Fil-more, Ill. "I was confined to my rooms more, Ill. "I was confined to my rooms all the time, and expected to be an invalid the rest of my life, having given up all hope of ever being well again, and yet I recovered entirely and quickly by eating a few spoonfuls of Grape-Nuts food every meal, in place of the improper food that had ruined my stomach.

"An aunt recommended this food to me so highly I finally decided that to be honest to myself I should give it a fair trial, and the result has certainly been marvelous. At the time I began eating Grape-Nuts I weighed 165 pounds, but now I weight 169, a ga! nof fifty-four pounds. My strength and activity are wonderful, and I have truly found the way to get and I have truly found the way to get and I have truly found the way to get well and keep well.

"As a strength giver for both mind and body, the action of the delicious food Grape-Nuts is so quick and certain that it seems like a miracle." Name given by Postum Co.. Battle Creek, Mich. There is no miracle about it.

There's a reason.

Look in each package for a copy of the famous little book, "The Road to Wellville."

OF S. P. G. A.

The President's Annual Report Tells the Story.

ARE GETTING MERCIFUL

It is Shown that the Society Has Ac complished Much Good-The Election of Officers and of

At the annual meeting of the Society

mals, held Wednesday night, the following report was submitted by President Cyrus Bossieux:

Time has flown swiftly since our last annual meeting, and the opening words of my address on that occasion may with impunity be used to-night: "The work of the year has not been astoundbut unremitting and very satisfac-The meeting of the board on the once-during the month of August-and the members continues, each one making a strenuous effort to protect every dumb creature who needs the guardianship of this association.

this association.

The moral effect of this quiet supervision is immense, and owners and drivers become more scrupulous and merciful every year. The Society for the Prevention of Crueity to Animals is the friend of all owners of animals, horses exceedible, for frequently the unsuspect. Mr. James Branch Cabell has been closely engaged in literary work since bis return from his summer vacation in the Virginia mountains. In addition to friend of all owners of animals, horses especially, for frequently the unsuspecting owner is the victim of a careless driver, over whom, however, the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals keeps a watchful eye.

There is one quarter where the jurisdiction of the society has not penetrated—a quarter which must be carefully looked after in the future. That is the handling of animals at the theatres. A very short while ago an ox used for dramatic purposes at the Academy had his leg broken and suffered extremely. Merciful people will not allow the cruel treatment of dumb things to amuse the public.

over county, Va.

The house was prettily decorated in palms and autumn flowers. Miss Grace Post, of West Point, Va., played the wedding march, and the ceremony was performed by the Rev. G. W. Burch, the pastor of the bride.

Miss Angle Knuckles, of Washington, D. C., was maid of honor, and Mr. Hervie Terrell best man. Owing to illness in the family, the marriage was very quiet, only the immediate relatives and intimate frienus being present. The bride wore her mother's white silk wedding gown, her mother's white silk wedding gown, her mother's veil, and for ornaments the neckchain and a gold cross pendant which was a bridal gift from her father to her mother.

Immediately after the ceremony a delightful luncheon was served in the dining room. Dr. and Mrs. Terrell left on the evening train for the North. They will be at home in Richmond after November 12th, at No. 304 East Grace Street, the home being a gift from Mrs. Ellett to her daughter. Admonitions Large animals destroyed home being a gift from Mrs. Ellett to her daughter.

Among the wedding guests were Mr. and Mrs. James Rutherfoord, Ar. and Mrs. J. Thompson Brown, Dr. and Mrs. Gee, Mr. and afrs. Charles Lafew, of Richmond; Miss Grace Post, of West Point, Va.; Dr. Gardin, Dr. Herbert, Miss Rosebud Brown, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Woodburn, Miss Angle Knuckies, of Washington, D. C.; Mr. E. C. Toome, Mr. U. H. Mason and others.

Dr. Terrell and his bride will be warmly welcomed in Richmond society, where they already have a large number of friends, and where both are already popular. Of these the following are the cases of the Church Hill branch, from Octo-ber 1st, 1902, to September 30th, 1903: Horses taken put and fed Overloaded teams

Admonitions given
Horses protected from sun
Horses taken away from driver
Cows protected
Goats protected
No cause for complaint

FINE TRIBUTE PAID

TO BISHOP DUDLEY

Bishop Thomas Underwood Dudley, of

Mr. Barker Sick.

Kentucky, who was elected yesterday to preside at the sessions of the Pan-Amer-

Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Putney have issued invitations for the marriage of their daughter, Josephine, to the Rev. William Page Dame, of Baltimore.

The coremony will be performed Thursday evening, November 12th, at 8 o'clock, in Holy Trinity Church.

The bride and groom will be at home after December 1st in No. 1125 West North Avenue, Baltimore. Country Club Meets. The Board of Governors of Lakeside cers for the ensuing year last evening: president: Mr. John P. McGuire, vicepresident, and Mr. Abram Warwick, secretary and treasurer.

The club enters upon the most flourishing period of its history, with a larger membership and a greater surplus in the treasury than ever before.

The entertainments given there, which were such a charming social feature of last autumn and spring, will again be inaugurated, the first one to take place on Saturday afternoon, November 28th.

Mrs. Jennie McPhail Welsh will reoper

Mrs. Jennie McPhall Welsh will reopen her dancing class at Belvidere Hall, No. 910 Floyd Avenue, the first dance being scheduled for November 4th. Mrs. Welsh will be glad to give additional information at No. 418 West Main Street. Her classes have always been so popular and so well attended that the young people will look forward to their beginning again with the most pleasurable anticipations. Mrs. Welsh is a most accomplished class director, Personal Mention.

Miss Beatrice Ashmead, of Washington, D. C., who has been the guest of Mrs. William L. Royall for several weeks, will leave to-day for home. Miss Ashmead was one of the handsomest among the many visiting young ladies at the Richmond Horse Show.

Mr. William Ellis Jones is ill with pneumonia at his home, "Summerfield," in Henrico county.

Miss Bessie Rountree will leave in a few days to visit Miss Irene Strayer, of Harrisonburg, Va.

Mr. and Mrs. James Rutherfoord have returned from Hanover, where they went to attend the Terrell-Ellett wedding, on Wednesday last.

Mrs. J. Taylor Ellyson, who is at home again, was greatly improved by a long stay at Clifton Springs, New York, in the early autumn.

Kentucky, who was elected yesterday to preside at the sessions of the Pan-Americon Congress of Bishops, is a native of Richmond, Va., say sthe Washington Star. He prepared for college at private schools, and later entered the University of Virginia, where he graduated in 1858 with distinction:

At the outbreak of the Civil War young Dudley became a volunteer in the Confederate service, subsequently being detailed to the Commissary Department in Richmond. He was afterwards promoted to the rank of major and given a permanent appointment. At the close of the war he resolved to study for the ministry. To this end he attended the Virginia Theological Beminary, in Alexandria, and subsequently spent a year at Harrisonburg, Va. He received his ordination at Baitimore, where he was afterwards, January 71, 1875, consecrated assistant bishop of Kentucky. In 1884, on the death of the venerable Bishop Smith, he became bishop of the Diocese of Kentucky.

His pronounced executive ability and missionary spirit made him the unanimous choice of the Episcopal Church in the United States for the difficult post of chairman of the Committee for Evangellistic Work among the Colored People. Bishop Dudley is a man of magnetic presence, which makes him a general favorite. He has great power as a pulpit crator, his style being intense, with rapid delivery. The engagement of Miss Kate E. Goddin to Mr. Frank Crutchfield has been announced by Mr. and Mrs. John T. Goddin, the parents of the bride-elect, the wedding to take place November 17th, in No. 607 West Grace Street, the home of the bride. . . .

Miss Sophie Williams and Mr. P. M. Barlow were married at 5:30 P. M. Wed-nesday, in the home of the bride's father, Mr. Edward Williams, of No. 500 North

The Rev. R. A. Goodwin officiated. Mrs. Edward Wright is the guest of her mother, Mrs. Robert Page Grymes, at No. 215 East Franklin Street. Mr. B. S. Barker, soliciting agent for Southern Railway is confined to his home at No. 1414 Floyd Avenue.

HIS EXCLUSIVE METHOD AND

Skill and Reliability Have Given Him a Popularity in Richmond to Be stowed in Equal Portions what Others Fall In and Gets the Unqualified Endorsement of Our Very Best People.

Charles Lincoln Smith, the famous New York optician, is at Murphy's Hotel Annex, private rooms Nos. 150, 152 and 154. Consultation absolutely free Thursday, Friday and Saturday. Eighth-Street entrance. Take elevator.

Office hours—10 A. M. to 4 P. M.

DOUBLE HEADER FOR Y. M.C.A.

Sunday, and Two Services.

Main-Street Station Y. M. C. A. will be of especial interest. From 3 o'clock to 4 o'clock there will be a men's meeting, at o'clock there will be a men's meeting, at which the celebrated Dailey Quartette will sling several selections, and Professor C. W. Kent, of the University of Virginia, will deliver an address on "Christianity is Manliness and More." At 4 o'clock the doors will be open to both ladies and gentlemen, and the Dailey Quartette will give a stored coure?!.

Professor Kent is widely known as a very entertaining and instructive speaker, and the Dailey Quartette is far famed for excellent music.

The following charters were granted by the Corporation Commission yesterday: Carbon Club, Norton: E. N. E-ser, president. Chesapeake Land Commission.

president.
Chesapeake Land Corporation, Norfolk;
M. W. Burke, president and treasurer;
capital stock. $15,000 to $50,000.
The Old Dominion Brewing and Ice
Company, chartered under laws of New Jersey was granted a license to do business in Virginia,
The Commonwealth Tobacco, also a New Jersey corporation, was admitted to the State to do business therein.

condition of his brother

President S. P. C. A.
October 21st, 1903.
After the reading of the president's report, the following officers were elected:
First Vice-President, Dr. Jud. B. Wood;
Second Vice-President, Mr. V. Newton;
Third Vice-President, Mr. Joseph Bryan;
Fifth Vice-President, Mr. Joseph Bryan;
Fifth Vice-President, Mr. Joseph Bryan;
Fifth Vice-President, Mr. Joseph Bryan;
Mr. J. P. Dashlell, Miss Pearl Bodeker,
Mr. William Rehling, Mr. E. C. Mayo,
and Mr. Horace G. Carlin. Counsel, Mr.
A. B. Guigon; Assistant, Dr. Jud. B.
Wood; President Church Hill Branch,
Miss Ruby Bodeker; Agent, E. C. Taylor.

NEGROES SENT DOWN

Alice Adams Goes to Jall for Theft-Drunks and Disorderlies.

"finest" registered in the Third District,

"Innest," registered in the Third District, have run down several negroes whom they believe are desperate characters and professional thieves.

'Squire Graves did the rest.
Their names are William Byrd and "Squirrel" Archer, and their female companion Susic Lee.

The three were caught in their room in a house on West Leigh Street. The coup was made in the darkness of night. The two officers broke in, and "Squirrel" made a desperate effort to escape, receiving a shot in his foot in passing. Krouse went after him, and he was finally landed. In the meantime Amos was having a time with "Squirrel" in the darkness of the room. The negro made a savage resistance, and fought hard to get his hand on a pistol. But the doughty Amos was too much for him, and all hands were landed at the Third Station.

The two men were fined $10 and put under bonds for a year, and all three were sent down for twelve months as suspicious characters.

Allee Parker Adams, a colored girl well known in police circles, was given six months for having a lot of money believed to have been taken from a Petersburg man.

to have been taken from a Petersburg man.

Laura Randolph paid up when she was charged with being drunk and disorderly, and the other plain drunks passed along

NEGROES HELD FOR ALLEGED ROBBERIES

Two negro crooks, James Monroe alias Solomon Monroe, and Odell Williams alias Walter Williams, who were held in jail here on charges of burglarizing a store and postonice at Otterdale, were yesterday charged with a similar crime, that of the burglarizing of the postoffice at Stevensville, King and Queen county. The two negroes were arrested Monday by Police-Sergeant Werner, at the instance of Federal officers, on a charge of breaking and entering the postoffice of breaking and entering the postoffice at Otterdale, Chesterfield county, and at Otterdale, Chesterfield county, and stealing therefrom stamps and government funds, goods and merchandiss. The officers had been on the lookout for the pair, who were suspected of the crime. They were brought before Commissioner Joseph G. Brady and after a hearing were held for the grand jury on the charge.

Yesterday on complaint made by the postmaster at Stevenaville, the two negroes were brought out for identification and being identified, a warrant was served on them, charging them with the second crime also. They were again brought before the commissioner and sent on for grand jury action.

QUALIFYING ROUND OF FALL TOURNAMENT.

The qualifying round of eighteen holes for the fall tournament of Lakeside Country Club will be played on Saturday, October 2th, play to begin not later than 4 P. M.

Prizes will be offered for A. B and C. classes and in addition class A winner's name will be engraved on the championship cup.

Pretty Play 10-Night.

Before the footlights at Concoran Hall to-night there will appear an array of Church Hill beauty, grace and talent in an artistle production of the sprightly comedy, "Flower of the Family," which captivating play combine sentiment, pathos and humor in an engaging plot abounding in thrilling climaxes and pretty tableaux. The production of the pretty play is undertaken by amateurs of local note, and is given under the auspices of Lee Cook Y, Mrs. Langdon Wall president. Doubtless a full house will greet and enjoy the "Flower of the Family."

A delightful reception was given from 8:30 to 11 o'clock last night at the rest-dence of Mrs. Valentine, No. 51 North Ninth Street, under the auspices of the Golden Rule Chapter, Y. W. C. T. U. About fifty members and visitors were present and six or eight new members were taken in.

Betreshments were served and the pro-

Governor Montague will return from the Mathews County Fair to-day. His Excellency has accepted an invitation to attend the Pythian memorial exercises to be held in the Bijou Theatre on Bunday, November 1st.

Colonel Button Gone. was nothing of public interest going at Democratic headquarters.

The windand rain storms last week did considerable damage to the flower gardens of Mr. Frank Thompson near Westhampton Park, but the fine weather this week has had a good effect upon his dahlias, and he now has them in great variety and plenty.

A BRIGHT STAR It is One of the Best Operas Enthusiastic Meeting of the

Ever Seen in This The "Silver Slipper" is the most ela-

SILVER SLIPPER

"Florodora." It is respiendent in its stage There is a wealth of color that fairly dazzles the eye with its brilliancy. Tho dazzles the eye with its brilliancy. The groupings are the prettiest that have been seen here for many a day. There is no space on the stage when the entire company is on. From wing to wing, and having heard in "Florodora," a few notes of the fatter having evidently found their ating as the fluid from which it takes its dirl You Love," completely won the audience. To mention the others would be singing a song et praise, in which there would be too many yerses.

"The Silver Silpper" will be repeated to the working a song and avaning.

The Mummy and Huming Bird.

The Mummy and Huming Bird.

Paul Gilmore, who appears in the stellar role of the big New York and London success, "The Mummy and the Humming Bird," at the Academy Saturday, mattnee and night, is a young man who has risen rapidly to the rank of a star. No yet thirty years of age he has ar-No yet thirty years of age has a star was made at the Fourteenth Street Theatre in New York in "The Dawn of Freedom." Later he starred as Dawn tagnan in "The Musketeers" and as Gilde Berault in "Under the Red Robe." Last season he was seen in John Prew's old character in "The Tyranny of Tears," and in "The Mummy and the Humming Bird' this season he has a role which he is credited by the cities as handling with skill and care. The company and production, which is under Jules Murry's management, will be found to be one of the season's best offerings. Gilmore is handsome, has the physique of an athlete dark complexion, an interesting face, and eyes that sparkle with determination.

"Looping the Loop," which has been delighting the audience at the Bliou Theatre this week, had a splendid audience at the natinee yesterday and 4 full house at night. The play seems to grow in favor, the specialties being particularly pleasing.

"I expect to have all that I can do next week to got the crowds in the Blou." week Manager McKee. "Only a Shop said Manager McKee. "Only a Shop Girl was here last season, and we had record-breakers for the entire engage-ment. The play is better than last year, and the advance sale of seats is, far away in the lead of anything we have had here."

Manager McKee announced yesterday that the old favorites, the Bijou Musical Comedy Company, now the Wells-Dunne-Harlan Comedy Company, had been engaged to play all the week, beginning November 23d. "The Knickerbooker Girl" will be the attraction. Little Chip, Mary Marble, and the others of the famous organization, will be with the company.

During the engagement of "Only a Shop Girl" next week Manager McNee will arrange for a reception at one of the matinees, so that the ladies and children will have an opportunity of meeting Miss Williams. The date has not been fixed.

Mainly About People ‡

Mrs. Clyde H. Slease, who has been visiting her aunt, Mrs. Lillie Heeke, has returned to her home in New York. Richmond Ruling, No. 124, F. M. C., will initiate twenty-five candidates in Pickett Camp Hall at 8 o'clock to-night. Following the initiation refreshments will be served and addresses will be made by prominent members of the order. Mr. and Mrs. Louis Cohen have issued invitations for the marriage of their daughter, Sadie Rebe to Mr. Abe David, of Washington, D. C., Tuesday evening, October 27th, at 7 F. M. at the Masonic Temple.

October 20th, at ...
Temple.
Mrs. S. Brown, Mrs. S. Kruckman and Miss Brown, of New York, are here to attend the Cohen-David nurtials, which take place at the Masonic Temple, Tuesday evening, October 28th.
Dr. Cooper, of the First Baptist Church, preached at the Almshouse last night,
and his sermon was much enjoyed.

Mr. Watson Here.

Hon. Walter A. Watson of Nottoway, was in the city yesterday. He said he thought the Southside countes would a nd a solid Democratic delegation to the Legislature this fall.

Mr. Upshur Back.

Mr. J. A. Upshur, clerk to the Corpora-tion Commission, has returned from Poco-moke, Md. where he attended the mar-riage of a relative, and was at his post yesterday.

"Knox" Hats

Are still the representative hats of this country—and we are "Knox" representatives here. All styles-Silk—Opera—Derby and Soft.

Gans-Rady Company

TO HAVE A FINE DOG SHOW HERE

Kennel Club Held Last Night.

A large and enthusiastic meeting of the at the sporting goods store of J. E. Quarles Company, No. 105 East Broad Street, Dr. Jud. B. Wood, president, pre-pointers, will be the largest ever seen here.

There are some 5,000 dog owners in Richmond, and they all nearly own good ones, so the prospects for a large entry are flattering.

The feature of this year's show will be the cash prizes.

The Kennel Club has raised a large guarantee fund, and will give big cash prizes in each class, as well as special prizes in each class, as well as special prizes. The club elected Mr. R. C. Brauer manager of the show for this year, and any communications addressed to him

No. 105 East Broad Street, will receive prompt attention.
The following officers were elected for the ensuing year:
Colonel W. Miles Cary, president.
Dr. Jud. B. Wood, first vice-president.
R. N. Northen, second vice-president.
Spencer Cormick, third vice-president.
Board of Governors-R. C. Brauer,
Frank Jenkins, J. E. Beecher, J. H. Dickrson and John Jackson.
The meeting adjourned until Thursday, ectober 29th.

LEE CAMP AND THE

GRAND CAMP MEETING All members are urged to attend the meeting of Lee Camp to-night, as there will be interesting matters in connection with the Grand Camp meeting at New-port News next week.

CAPT. GELAT ARRESTED:

VALUABLE JEWELS HELD

WILLIAM ELKINS ILL AND CANNOT RECOVER

(By Associated Press.)
PHILADELPHIA, PA., October 22.—It was stated to-night that after a consultation of physicians attending William Elkins, the multi-millionaire capitalist of this city, who is seriously ill at his home, the family of the sick man was informed that there is little hope for his recovery.

Run Over by Circus Train,

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
LEXINGTON, VA. Oct. 22—An unknown man was killed yesterday on the Norfolk and Western Railroad, near Glasgow. The three tenants of Walter L. Maring over the man, and cut him in two, Up until the afternoon the multilate body of the unfortunate man was seen lying by the side of the track, unprotected.

Will Ask for Pardon.

Will Ask for Pardon.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

LOUISA, VA., Oct. 22.—Governor Montague will soon be petitioned to pardon L. Napler, who was sentenced to eighteen years in the penitentlary for the murder of Joe Knighton at Green Spring depot in 1901. His counsel to-day was seliciting signatures to the petition, but with what success could not be learned.

Dead Near the Track.

(uppedsict seault, sul. of pulosds)
ORANGE, VA., Oct. 22.—Val Patterson, a negro, employed on double-tracking the Scuthern, was found dead near the track of the Southern Railway between Spottswood and Rapidan Station, this morning, it is said he came from North Corolina to work on the railroud.

Norfolk Man Elected.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

HARTFORD, CONN.. Oct. 22.-L. W.
Childrey, of Morfolk, Va., was to-day elected chairman of the Executive Committee. National Association of Fire Insurance Agents, convened here. Examine Recruits.

Clay-Street League.

Dr. L. W. Staton, Marine Hospital sur-geon, will to-morrow begin the examina-tion of recruits for the marine corps. A recruiting station will soon be open in the shater building by a colonel of ma-rines and a squad of non-commissioned officers.

On account of special services going on at Chay-Street Church the Epworth League will meet this evening at 7:30, and will hold for half hour. This meeting will be in charge of the president. The special meetings are growing in interest, Rev. L. B. Betty is doing the preaching.

YEAR'S WORK EXTENDS HIS VISIT, THREE ALLEGED BAD

PRESCRIPTION GLASSES.

Won Only by True Merit.

Astonishment and Praise Beon This Modern Marvel.

Charles Lincoln Smith Accomplishes

REMAINS ALL THIS WEEK

Professor Kent and the Dalley Quartette Next Sunday's evening services at the

Mr. Thomas H. Bigger has returned from Norfolk, where he visited his bro-ther, Mr. H. McG. Bigger, who is suffer-ing from an acute attack of catarrh. Mr.

Mr. Bigger Better.

Judgments Rendered.

The following judgments were rendered in the Circuit Court vesterday:

1. T. Beveridge and Company vs. the George E. Gee Grain Company, $145.

Richmond Watch Company vs. Corrie Graves, $13.56.

FAL WAYS HAVE BARGAINS. ... Special Features in ... Hackley Pianos Tone-Beauty-Endurance-Quality. They Are Worth Your Consideration. Chase-Hackley Plano Company, 003 East Broad St.